Flight to California

R. G. Minutillo

thoughts on sunset
red sky beyond the
thunderheads
orange towns
 along
the waves of land

the chased and
timeless sunset
ahead i face
looking down
floating under
power

thoughts on thunderheads
the wing reaching out, its tip

glowing,

the travelers are
alive, the orange streets
i see below
are lined with
the glow of the living,

 a marker
in space, antennae
feeling the
waves of electricity

 their lives,
like mine,

moving
